

Our legal services for

Vet practices

HCR is a full-service top 60 law firm providing specialist legal advice to vets and practice owners. Our veterinary specialists offer the sector a multi-disciplinary approach, covering everything from mergers and acquisitions to start-ups and debt collection.

In addition to our practice advice we also provide dedicated HR packages for the vet sector under HR4Vets. Our packages are tailor-made to address the day-to-day needs of veterinary practices.

We believe that, in order to offer advice you can count on, we not only need to be at the forefront of legal developments in the sector, but also leading the conversation. That's why we regularly contribute articles to leading publications, and our experts speak at renowned events like the London Vet Show, as well as the Society of Practising Veterinary Surgeons (SPVS), Veterinary Management Group (VMG) and also act as legal partners to the British Small Animal Veterinary Association (BSAVA).

Alongside this, our team has expertise across:

Banking and Finance:

Opportunities come and go quickly. We deal with a variety of banks and financial institutions, and are well placed to help you access the funding you need to achieve your ambitions. We offer acquisition finance, asset and trade finance and work with you so you can grow.

Corporate:

Whether you're looking for expert advice on company formations, mergers and acquisitions, due diligence reporting or employee ownership trusts, our team of corporate lawyers will give you a clear view of the risks and opportunities so you can make the right decision.

Employment and Immigration:

The workplace can be difficult to navigate. Our employment and immigration solicitors take the pressure off – whether that’s providing quick legal advice over the phone or working by your side on complex litigation. We open doors to the UK to those from abroad, provide HR advice and employer support.

Real Estate:

Whether you’re buying or selling your home, looking for new commercial premises or considering renewable technology as an alternative to traditional fuel sources, our real estate team are by your side to advise individuals and businesses on all aspects of the property landscape.

Commercial

Our team of commercial solicitors are ready to guide you through your business contracts and help you make the right decisions when it comes to protecting your intellectual property.

Private Client:

Ensuring your assets are passed on to the right people is an important consideration for anyone. Our team of private client experts can help you draft wills and set up trusts for the future. We also act for private individuals and family members to ensure estates are administered correctly and can advise on complicated tax issues. We also have a team of wills, trusts and estates solicitors if there’s a dispute.

Dispute Resolution:

When a dispute arises, it's important to act quickly to resolve the situation. Our dispute resolution solicitors offer a wide range of services, including advising on financial disputes, IP protection, real estate dispute resolution and reputation management.

Family Law:

Our family law experts can guide you through divorce proceedings, draft pre- and post-nuptial agreements and advise on children matters. Civil partnerships, collaborative law and mediation, along with international law are also dealt with by our specialists.

If you would like to know more about our services please call us for an informal, no-obligation chat.
